A2C3 / DEPARTMENT REPORT EXAMPLE

CRR Detail

FICTIONAL EXAMPLE - NOT MEASURED ACTIVITY

Illustrative Fire Department | October 1-31, 2026

All names and counts are invented. This is not a customer result, testimonial, or evidence of effectiveness. This closed-period example matches finishes to the starts shown. Counts are sessions, not people.

Knowledge Challenge: 320 starts, 240 finishes, 2,400 recorded answers, and 75.0% answer accuracy. This simplified example includes answers from completed rounds only.

Topic results

Knowledge topic	Correct	Missed	Accuracy
Electrical safety	390	210	65.0%
Heating safety	420	180	70.0%
Home escape planning	480	120	80.0%
Smoke alarms	510	90	85.0%

Difficulty

Program or placement	Starts	Finishes	Completion
Easy	120	100	83.3%
Medium	100	75	75.0%
Hard	100	65	65.0%

CRR Detail | Selected question examples

FICTIONAL EXAMPLE - NOT MEASURED ACTIVITY

Electrical safety

What should you do with a damaged electrical cord?

Correct response: Stop using it and replace it.

39 correct | 21 missed | 65.0% accuracy from 60 answers.

Heating safety

How far should portable heaters be kept from things that can burn?

Correct response: At least 3 feet.

42 correct | 18 missed | 70.0% accuracy from 60 answers.

Home escape planning

Once you escape a home fire, what should you do?

Correct response: Stay outside and go to the meeting place.

48 correct | 12 missed | 80.0% accuracy from 60 answers.

These questions are a subset of topic results, not additional activity or a complete question bank.

Actual reports depend on program, period, available activity, and privacy thresholds. Small counts may be protected. Completion and correct answers do not establish learning or behavior change. The HTML example is the primary accessible version; this PDF is a formatted print copy.